NASHVILLE GOSSIP.

"Already the Nashville delegation of trainers are speculating upon the probable winner of the Cumberland Park Derby," says a Nashville dispatch to the Enquirer of December 22. "William Gerst, the Nashville brewer, furnished the favorite for the last Derby as well as the winner, and it looks now that he will again furnish the favorite and the most likely winner in the good colt Brancas, the son of Knight of Ellerslie. Trainer McDaniel will give the colt a special Derby preparation. Mr. McDaniel knows how to fit one, too, for he has captured more derbies than any trainer in America, he having captured the Arkansas, Tennessee, Kentucky and the American Derby all in the same year.

"From the barns of T. P. Hayes, George Hendrie, John Ferris, Frank Bruhns, John Walters, E. S. Gardner, Wood Clay, Church Allen and one or two other local trainers will come candidates for the Cumberland Derby, and the race should prove, as last year, one of the best races for horses of the three-year-old division.

"The local association is a breeders' organization, and all stakes, except the Derby, are named in honor of local breeding establishments around Nashville. The Belle Meade Stakes for two-year-old fillies, the Avondale Stakes for two-year-olds, the William Gerst Stakes for three-year-olds and upward, are fixtures, and nearly every stable on the grounds of the Cumberland Park Association would rather win one of these than a Derby. Aside from the rich stakes, the local association will have a liberal purse program, $400 and $500.

"It is regretted that John Drake will declare out all his horses that are engaged in the Tennessee events. In the Tennessee Derby he has Van Esher, Ort Wells, Turtle and Rudabek, and in the Oaks Miss Veracity and Matronia. Trainer Wishard was in Nashville only a few days ago and gathered together all his horses and moved bag and baggage to Sheepshead Bay, where he will winter. Drake will race exclusively in the east next year."

Fore and Aft, winner of the Cumberland Park Derby last season, has been turned out on the Gerst Farm, near Nashville, for several months. He will be taken up next week and put in active training.

Gold Heels, the great son of The Bard, is training well. T. P. Hayes, who has been so successful with cripples, thinks the horse will train certainly. He will be entered extensively in the closing events in the west this season. His first start will be in the Citizens' Handicap at Nashville.

The school for stable boys and jockeys at Cumberland Park is in full swing and the school will be continued each evening until the opening of the spring meeting in April. Prof. T. C. Abbott has the boys under perfect control and they are very much interested. Classes are arranged from the primary to the eighth grade. This school is the first one that has been in existence on a racetrack. About thirty-five boys are enrolled.

A steeplechase field will be built at Cumberland Park and cross-country races may be a feature of the coming meeting. There are quite a few jumpers at Cumberland Park. They will also be entered in the stakes at Memphis and Louisville.

The stable of R. F. Meyers, now located at Dayton, Ohio, will be shipped to Nashville the first of the month.

An effort is being made to have starter

Mars Cassidy to start at Nashville next spring.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"Good mare that she is known to be, the easy manner in which Witfull won the Crescent City Handicap seems to have occasioned great surprise among the majority of horsemen," says the Picayune of Dec. 21. "It was not that her winning was not looked for, nor that there was anything like a question of her ability to take up 114 pounds and run a mile and a quarter in fast time, but it was in the manner of doing it that the Hildreth mare upset the mental balance of the men who profess to know just what every horse with which they are familiar is capable of doing. As a matter of fact, Witfull did not have the universal support of the wise crowd. Her recent defeat by Ben Chance, together with the fact that it was thought she might show to better advantage over a heavy track, caused the belief that she was not to be considered as anything like a 'standing out' favorite. It was probably due to the fact that Fuller had the mount that so short a price was quoted against her, for paddock talk indicated that the winner must be looked for from some other quarter. The manner in which Fuller entered into his work in this instance of his reappearance was most pleasing. That the jockey has improved even over the excellent form of last winter here, cannot be doubted. He comes back with as brilliant a reputation as ever held to the name of a jockey, and in addition to this he has a superb confidence in his own abilities, as well as a proper regard, or disregard, for the jockey company with whom he will meet, and altogether is in condition to give us innumerable exhibitions of what real horsemanship is like. He looks heavy, but his manager, Archie Zimmer, says the boy will be riding at 105 pounds within a day or two, and at this weight he will have no trouble in getting the mounts he feels like accepting."

Henry M. Ziegler and trainer Charles Hughes left Cincinnati last Monday for Lexington, to have a look at the Ziegler yearlings, which are at Highland Farm. There are nine colts and two fillies, and trainer Hughes is satisfied that he has more than one "real runner" in the outfit. Mr. Ziegler will return to Cincinnati at once, while trainer Hughes will go to New Orleans, to remain until about the middle of February. Totness, Lady Lavish and another of the Ziegler two-year-olds now at New Orleans will be raced there the remainder of the winter. The colts Wayfarer and Don John are at the Lexington farm. Trainer Hughes says they have both grown. He says that Don John is a Derby horse and that if he stays right he will be hard to beat.

Word comes from New Orleans that Archie Zimmer, who trains for T. D. Sullivan of New York has made up his mind to race his stable in St. Louis next season. He says that he will send a horse to the Mound City next spring that will beat anything in training there. Zimmer has reference to Old Ireland, formerly Old England. This horse used to race in the colors of the veteran trainer Green B. Morris. Senator Sullivan bought Old England from Green Morris and paid $100 to change the horse's name. Zimmer says that Old Ireland will win the $50,000 World's Fair Handicap, the Inaugural, Club Members' Handicap and every other big stake offered by the St. Louis race tracks in 1904.

Winner—B. g. by Raeburn—Affatus (trained by F. Midgely). Went to post at 2:00. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Burning Glass broke well when the start came, but was interfered with at the first turn. Callahan then took him up on the outside, wore the leaders down on the backstretch and outgamed Begone when it came to the final drive. The latter, as usual, began slowly, but closed a big gap, finished with a rush and was catching the winner at every stride. Jake Weber showed speed and set a fast pace, but tired in the stretch run. Felix Bard was out-run all the way. Our Nugget was used up in racing with the leaders in the first six furlongs. Pompino finished fast. Calcutta met with no mishaps and was off well, but tired after going a half.

Scratched—43233 Count 'Em Out, 103; 43207 Royal Pirate, 92. Overweights—Pompino, 3 pounds. Burning Glass, show, 4 to 1. Begone, show, 9 to 5. Jake Weber, show, 7 to 5. Felix Bard, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Fon Tom—Spring Spray (trained by J. W. Berthum). Went to post at 2:30. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Gin Spray made a show of his field, went to the front when Wilson was ready and opened up a winning lead in the run down the backstretch, was never in trouble at any stage and was eased up at the end. Jack Doyle ran a good race and finished well. Malay ran well throughout and outgamed The Bobby in the stretch drive. The latter seemed unable to extend himself and ran much below his form. Free Admission was outfooted for the entire trip.

Captain Gaines went to the front with a rush when called on and was only cantering at the end. This is the first time he has run to his true form at the meeting. Barbara Frietchie met with no mishaps, was tiring at the end and, under a hard drive all of the last furlong, just managed to last long enough to stall off Ivernia. The latter finished fast and would have been second in another stride. Homestead ran a good race. Boaster was cut off and interfered with a couple of times. Lou Woods was ridden all over the track.

Huzzah caught the leaders tiring in the stretch run, finished fast and was going away after being carried wide. Mynheer finished resolutely and just lasted long enough to stall off Ethics. The latter was left at the post and closed a big gap, but tired after getting to the leaders. Satire broke from the extreme outside and Callahan had to whip him across the head to get over toward the inside rail and he tired after going six furlongs.  Winner—Ch. c, by Horoscope—Handmaid (trained by S. W. Streett).
 Went to post at 4:06. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won driving; second easily. Palmist got off flying, beat the barrier a length and this won him the race. Robbins hustled him along for the entire trip and he was tiring at the end and doing his best to stall off Lev Dorsey. The latter got away all tangled up, closed a big gap and, finishing fast, was catching the winner at every stride. Invincible showed speed, but just managed to last long enough to get third money. Floyd K. dropped back at the turn out of the backstretch. Belle Mahone was on the outside of the leaders all the way. Bounding ran well to the stretch.

 Winner—B. f, by The Commoner—Helen of Troy (trained by C. Mulholland).
 Went to post at 4:35. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Commena was well ridden. Phillips waited with her until turning out of the backstretch before making his run, then won Blueblaze down and came away with a rush in the stretch. St. Wood met with a lot of interference at the first turn and had to go around the field on the extreme outside to get up, closed a big gap and finished fast. Blueblaze was away well in motion and set a fast pace, but tired after going six furlongs. Alalia was crowded to the inside fence in the run around the first turn. Birdwood was carried to the outside soon after the start and was interfered with at the far turn when Hyams made his run. Mint Bed tired and could never get to the leaders.
 Scratched—43002 Pupil, 101.
 Overweights—Arden, 1 pound.

 Winner—B. f, by Fitz James—Quadruple (trained by J. McCullough).
 Went to post at 2:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Stirling Towers, on the outside in dry going and away in her stride, held a small lead throughout and just lasted the journey. Sir Preston, always a sharp contender, was wearing her down at the end and ran in greatly improved form. Elfin King, away badly, closed a big gap and at the end was going fastest of all. Capable ran quickly into a contending position from a bad last and held on steadily in fifth place to the end, putting up a game finish. Yellowstone held a forward position from the start and finished close up. Boutonniere was shuffled back at the start and closed up a lot of ground in the last half. Quartre ran a poor race. Hilary favors sloppy going.
 Scratched—43223 Puss in Boots, 109.

 Winner—Ch. g, by Dorian—Pilonnisa (trained by A. F. Dayton).
 Went to post at 2:29. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Mendon ran lapped on the pacemaker to the far turn, where he drew away with the favorite and, in a long and sustained drive, beat him home gamely and at the weights was best. Rockaway appeared like he could come away at will when turning for home, but finally succumbed to the winner's superior speed and stamina in the final half furlong. Instructor showed brilliant speed and sustained it in improved style, due to the improved condition of the track and will make good shortly. Lord Wadsworth, away poorly, raced up into contention on the far turn, where he went very wide and fell away at the end. Solanus made a promising debut.

 Winner—Ch. f, by Handsome—Misty Morn (trained by S. J. Jones).
 Went to post at 2:57. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Misty's Pride, on the outside and a quick breaker, led throughout and except for a brief instant, when shaken up to come away from Americano at the end, was never extended. Americano made a good showing under Bullman's vigorous ride, got away well and finished a fast going second. Pierce J. steadily improved his position, finishing with a rush. Card-wellton tired after a vain effort to outrun the winner. Fort Wayne finished well. Futurita, nearly left and inadequately handled, worked through a rough journey on her own courage, finishing like a whirlwind. Bummer warmed up sore and ran a poor race.

 Winner—B. g, by Brutus—Constellation (trained by F. Hubbard).
 Went to post at 3:24. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving. Constellation ran as if he outclassed the field and was always increasing his lead as the race progressed. Arthur Ray, a suddenly improved horse, closed up well in the stretch run and finished a lucky second. L. O. U. had a rough journey to the final sixteenth, where he came with a rush and would have been second in another stride. Foxy Grandpa held a prominent position throughout and ran a game race. Lunar was shuffled back at the half and closed a big gap. Elie, nearly left, made up a lot of ground. Cheny runs like a stayer and came from a long way back in the stretch run. Thank Haven failed to stay and probably favors mud. Prestolus was knocked out of it on the first turn.

 Winner—B. m, by Herald—Santa Rosa (trained by E. F. Frederickson).
 Went to post at 3:54. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Ada N., skillfully rated in the rear, suddenly moved up when turning for home and, finishing fast, wore the leader down at the end. She is in great form and, being afflicted with a chronic soreness, the soft going was particularly grateful. Diderot, fresh and good, forced a running from the start and seemingly had the field beaten, tiring only in the last fifty yards after a well sustained effort. Chorus Boy ran well up to the far turn and made good in the stretch run home, where he caught the choices tiring. Bill Massie fell away at the end after a sustained early effort to overhaul the pacemaker. Meehanus, nearly left, quickly raced into a close second in the first half and, being palpably short, tired in the closing drive. Illowaho is an uncertain quantity, showed plenty of speed and failed to stay.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The application of George E. Smith, the plunger, who is best known as Pittsburg Phil, for a rehearing of his case, whereby his entries are refused, was laid upon the table at a meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club, held last Tuesday in the apartments of James R. Keene at the Waldorf-Astoria. Those present at the meeting were August Belmont, James R. Keene, J. H. Bradford, Andrew Miller and H. K. Knapp. It will be recalled that the entries of Smith were refused last May at the same time that the license of Shaw, his jockey, was revoked. The Pittsburg man took the disciplinary action of the stewards very much to heart. He continued to visit the race course, however, and had his usual success at backing winning horses. Of late, it is alleged, a feeling had arisen in the minds of many connected with the turf that the stewards would relax their ruling against Smith. In this common belief the stewards evidently did not share.

"Heno, the crack four-year-old son of Henry Young—Quiver, has been permanently retired to the stud by his owner, W. S. Fanshawe, the eastern turfman," says the Louisville Courier Journal. "Heno, it will be remembered, was sent to win the American Derby of 1902. He was then in the stable of Clarence Mackay and was the post favorite for the Washington Park event. But Heno ran disappointingly under an ill-judged ride by Bullman, finishing in the ruck behind Wyeth, Lucien Apoleby and Aladdin. It is doubtful if Heno will prove a success in the stud. His sire, Henry Young, was a grand racehorse and also a good producer, but Quiver, Heno's dam, was a Faustian mare. Although possessing a wonderful flight of speed, Quiver was not capable of running much beyond five furlongs without stopping. The Faustian blood has ever been shunned by breeders, and Heno may, on that account, not be given as much chance in the stud as would a stallion of more aristocratic lineage. It remains to be seen whether his get will go the route, or whether the sprinting proclivities and faint-heartedness of the Faustian strain will assert themselves."

E. R. Thomas and the Shields brothers, Alex and Willie, will have a strong stable next year, of which, of course, Hermis and Lady Amelia are the stars. The latter is said to have grown into a magnificent filly and much is expected of her in her three-year-old form. The "Iron horse," Advance Guard, one of the most popular thoroughbreds that ever looked through a bridle—popular because he raced and won on every important track from coast to coast and back again—is once more going sound, but will never again face the starter. The old fellow is scampering in the paddock at Bound Brook as playful as a kitten. His legs, which, since his breakdown, have until recently been swollen to an alarming size, have been reduced to their normal condition through a cold water process, which has not only removed the swelling and fever entirely, but has hardened them like iron. Advance Guard—great cup horse that he was—will be retired to the stud and bred to the best mares that can be obtained.

Stubbs Brothers, the Kansas City horse-men have arrived at New Orleans with their stable from St. Louis. Included in their lot is that useful horse, Pettijohn.
